

CURRICULUM VITAE

1. Before university studies

Born: 12th November 1947      Vienna, Austrian citizen; mother tongue: German.
1954 - 1958      Primary school at Vienna.
1958 - 1966      Secondary school at Vienna.

2. University studies, special scholarships, teaching qualifications and activities

1967 - 1975      Studies on the Philosophical Faculty of the University of Vienna
a) study for the professorship in Latin and History on Secondary Schools:
30.5.1972      teaching qualification
20.11.1972      M.A. (Mag.phil):
b) study for the doctorate in Egyptology (main subject) and Classical Philology (secondary subject):
20.3.1975      graduation to Ph.D.
Summer 1968      Study of Etruscology and Italian Antiquities in Perugia (Università per Stranieri) with final diploma.
June 1978; 1983      Repeated award of the Ellaina Macnamara Memorial Scholarship (London) für the project „Egyptian cultural values in Phoenician and Punic Sardinia”.
Since 1978 until now:      Lecturer for Greek and Roman Egypt at the University of Vienna.
1.3.1981 - 31.8.1982      Scientific work with scholarship of the Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung on the University of Köln (Germany).
Since 5.2.1982:      Free Universitätsdozent for Egyptology after habilitation with the two-volume publication on the „Relations of the Egyptian culture to Archaic Italy”.
Since 1983 until now:      In the latter function current university courses at the Universities of Vienna and Salzburg, supervising of thesis for magisterium and doctorate, examiner in examinations for master's and doctor's degree.
19.1.1996:      Lecture at the University of Trier „Ideologische Fragen bei der Ausbildung des römischen Pharaos” on invitation of the commission for the reinstatement of the professorship for egyptology.

1996 - 2004	Every year conferences in irregular intervals in Cairo and Alexandria as Visiting Professor.
26.10.1996	Together with Prof. Dr. Dr. Manfred Görg organization of the interdisciplinary symposium „Das spätzeitliche Ägypten und der östliche Mittelmeerraum” at Munich on the Institute for Egyptology of the University.
3.11.1998	Conferment of the title „Extraordinary University Professor” by the President of the Austrian Republic through application of the University of Salzburg.
12.11.2001	First scientific conference at the new Bibliotheca Alexandrina in Alexandria with the title „Alexandrian Gods in Greece”.
Summer semester 2002	Lectures on Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt at the International Papyrus Institute at Syracuse, Sicily.
2004-2010	Reader on Roman Egypt at the University of Catania, Corso di Laurea in Beni Culturali at Syracuse.
15.2.-27.4.2010	Lectures on Ptolemaic temples as Visiting Professor at Cairo University, Faculty for Archaeology.
Summer semester 2011	Reader in “Egyptology” at the University of Catania, Corso di Laurea Magistrale in Archaeology.

3. Other professional activities

16.10.1970 - 31.3.1971	Scientific assistant on the Institute of Egyptology and Africanistics on the University of Vienna.
September 1971 - June 1972	Teacher of Latin in a Secondary school at Vienna.
1.9.1972 - 31.3.1983	Librarian on the University Library of Vienna; functions: expert adviser for General Linguistics, Indo-European Studies, Classical Philology and all kinds of Archaeology of the Old World.
1.4.1983 - 30.9.1993	Scientific official on the Austrian Academy of Sciences, Egyptian Commission.
1.10.1993 – 30.11.2003	Curator on the Museum of Fine Arts (Kunsthistorisches Museum) at Vienna, Egyptian Collection.

4. Memberships and honorary offices by election

1980-1988:	Egyptian Commission of the Austrian Academy of Sciences;
since 1985:	Mycenaean Commission, ibidem;
since 1985:	Commission for the Exploration of Asia Minor, ibidem.
2001 - 2004	„President of the International Papyrus Institute” at Syracuse, Sicily.
since 2.12.2001	Member of the Scientific Committee of the Istituto Italiano per la Civiltà Egizia.

5. Family

6.7.1973	Marriage with M.A. Ingrid Hölbl, borne Breyer
9.12.1976	birth of my son Alexander;
1.4.1980	birth of my son Georg.

6. Main research areas (see list of publications)

- a) Diffusion of Egyptian religion and other Egyptian cultural values into the Mediterranean world;
- b) Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt.